BECAUSE MONEY RETURNS, TIME DOESN'T.

ABOUT THE TRIP

This 6 nights 7 days Leh to Leh road trip is crafted to offer a complete Ladakh experience, blending altitude, culture, and raw Himalayan beauty. The journey begins with a dedicated acclimatization day in Leh, allowing the body to adjust before exploring monasteries, cafes, and local landmarks. The route then unfolds towards Nubra Valley via iconic high mountain passes, where cold desert landscapes and sand dunes meet snow covered peaks. A highlight of the trip is Turtuk, a remote village near the Indo Pakistan border, known for its Balti culture, apricot orchards, and untouched charm. From Nubra, the journey continues to Pangong Lake, where shifting shades of blue under vast skies create unforgettable moments. Traveling in a tempo traveller ensures comfort, safety, and a shared experience with like minded travelers, making the journey as memorable as the destinations.

TIPS AND ESSENTIALS

- Acclimatization is everything, take Day 1 slow and avoid any physical exertion
- Keep your body warm at all times, especially chest, feet, and ears
- Layering works better than one heavy jacket, carry thermals, fleece, and windproof outerwear
- Always carry a reusable water bottle and sip water regularly, do not overdrink
- Keep light snacks like chocolates, dry fruits, and energy bars for long travel stretches
- Carry a small oxygen can if you are unsure about altitude adaptation
- Avoid alcohol, smoking, and sleeping pills as they increase AMS risk
- Do not run, jump, or overexert, even if you feel normal initially
- Keep sunscreen, lip balm, and moisturizer, Ladakh sun and wind are harsh
- Wear UV protected sunglasses to avoid snow blindness
- Power banks are a must as electricity can be unreliable in remote areas
- Carry a dry bag to protect electronics from dust, water, and sudden weather changes
- Network is limited, inform family in advance and keep offline maps downloaded
- Keep cash with you, ATMs may not work or be available in remote regions
- Eat light but regular meals, avoid heavy and oily food at high altitude
- Garlic soup or local remedies can help with altitude adjustment
- Avoid daytime sleeping on initial days to help your body adapt faster
- Respect local culture and environment, do not litter and avoid loud behavior
- Always follow your trip captain or local guide instructions, especially on high altitude routes
